DEATH IN THE DAILY LIFE OF THE ROSS COLONY:
MORTUARY BEHAVIOR IN FRONTIER RUSSIAN AMERICA
APPENDIX I (Lists All Persons Known To Have Been Stationed At Ross)
Excerpted from the Dissertation Submitted in Partial Fulfillment of the Requirements for the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Anthropology at University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, August 1997
by Sannie Kenton Osborn

This appendix lists all persons known to have been stationed at Ross. These individuals and families were located during the course of my research of the archival and published literature. They are listed sequentially by ethnic group in the tradition of the Russian American Company: Russians, Yakuts, foreigners, Creoles, Native Alaskans, California Indians, and persons believed to be either Russian or Creole by name or occupation but not clearly designated in the literature. The listing is by place of origin, if known, for the male head of household with the legitimate or illegitimate (common-law) wife and children shown below the male. Where known, the occupation of the person or relationship to other family members is given. "Years at Ross" refers to the four census years of 1820, 1821, 1836, and 1838... "Other" refers to other years at Ross that were referenced in the literature or other information such as arrival or departure on Company vessels. The "Died at Ross" column shows the following information: "YES" means the person is known to have died at Ross; "NO" means there is documentation that the person did not die at Ross and in some cases returned to Alaska or Russia; "?" means there is some question about whether a person known to have been stationed at Ross also died there; and a blank column indicates there is insufficient information on this subject. Ages derived from baptismal or christening records are shown in parentheses followed by an asterisk, for example (3)*
