Dear friends,

Wishing our Fort Ross friends around the world a wonderful Thanksgiving surrounded by family and friends. In addition to abundant eating, we strongly recommend you get outside to enjoy the changes in season. Here on the coast everything has sprung back to life with the rains, and the golden hills of California are now a vibrant green. And speaking of green --

CALL HOUSE MUSEUM NEWS

With invaluable help from our dedicated volunteers and a private funder, FRC has successfully overseen Phase One of the Call House preservation. This house museum, an important example of the early California ranch era, received a much needed face lift with lead abatement, new paint new shutters, and maintenance to the porch, doors and windows. Special thanks to Call House Museum Manager Lynn Rudy. The Call House Museum and Garden is open first weekend of each month from 1 to 4 PM.
